Dear Sirs.

Just A short note to thank you and your staff for your thoughtful considerations and help during my stay over the last four weeks. After working in a total muck hole, in the atrocious weather, snow, freezing fog, rain, and returning looking like I had just escaped from the Addams family basement, the piping hot shower, warm room, and a hot meal were a godsend.

In the morning after a wonderful long sleep, a full English breakfast served by your helpful chef and a chit chat with the ladies on duty, this set me up for another day down the salt mines. Please pass on my compliments to all concerned, again many thanks for a most enjoyable stay, be lucky, Tony Levy.
